

Rawlplug

Rawlplug is one of the worlds leading manufacturers of specialist anchoring and fixing systems, used in construction, industrial and retail markets.

Based in Glasgow, the UK manufacturing base was opened in 1969 covering 15,000 sq metres, utilising state of the art manufacturing processes. Rawlplug currently employ 150 employees, the majority based at the Glasgow hub.

The company produces hundreds of millions of specialist fixings a year and supplies over 70 countries worldwide.

We offer a comprehensive range of products to meet the needs of all users, from the construction specifier and professional tradesman to the DIY enthusiast.

Description

The all-purpose plug which accepts a variety of screw sizes. Available for different colors.

Suitable for use in:

Hollow, solid & combination walls.

Features

1. Flange ensures flush fit to surface. Can be collapsed for deep setting in solid materials.
2. Anti-rotation fins prevent spinning when tightening screw.
3. Engineered grip feature for extra holding power.
4. Twin expansion points for a strong fix in hollow, solid or combination materials

